THE HASTINGS CHRONICLE.

THE GREAT EASTERN.

Frigate letters received by the Hastings state that the last-mentioned ship would go to sea on her trial trip about the 16th August, and be in readiness to sail on her voyage across the Atlantic to Portland about the 10th or 12th of September.

The statement is confirmed by the following advertisement, which appears in the London papers:

THE GREAT EASTERN FOR AMERICA.—The Great Eastern will leave this country for Portland, U. S., about the 10th of September, and have made a short trial trip. Rates of passage, port of departure, and other arrangements will be announced.

For our Agent, Secretary, Great Ship Company (Limited) 11 King William street, London, August 6, 1858.

Many of us may be anxious to anticipate the progress of the Great Eastern, and there is not much from this date for doubtless there will be a numerous excursion party from Montreal to New York, and a short trial trip. Rates of passage, port of departure, and other arrangements will be announced.

We have also been informed that the Hudson's Bay Company will be engaged in the discussions of the Great Eastern.

The following from the N. Y. Courier and Enquirer gives a good general conception of its colossal proportions and other peculiar characteristics:

The Great Eastern differs from all ships which have been built before it in three respects—the chief of which is its excessive magnitude. Nothing like it has ever been floated. Ordinary steamers are like cockroaches to her. The immense steamer, the British and the American Nov. 10, 1858.

Nov. 10, 1858.—The Great Eastern will be the largest, the longest, and the heaviest. Yielding to the necessity of the time, we yet know of nothing else that can stand comparison with it. She will be the largest Nov. 10, 1858.

Nov. 10, 1858.—The length of the ship was 300 cubits, its breadth 50 cubits, and its height 30 cubits.

The long pending trial of Dr. Smethurst, for the murder of Miss Banks at Richmond, had terminated in a verdict of guilty and the death sentence.

The Wreathes burnt at Liverpool was Mr. Ratner's. Loss principally cotton and £10,000. Mostly insured.

The projected fortifications at Antwerp were excited increased attention and uneasiness.

Colin Farrel has quitted Modena for Parma to assume the duchy offered him.

The municipality had issued a proclamation expressing unanimously a desire for this, and the population evinced great enthusiasm.

The government had purchased 9,000 rifles, and invited divided corps of riflemen of the Alpa to take service under Parma.

It was reported from Vienna that the Emperor was getting impatient at the delay in the restoration of Grand Dukes.

Arrival of the "North Briton."

Quebec, Sept. 5. The North Briton passed Father Point at 8 P. M., on the 4th. She brings 241 passengers.

The Guard Company advertise the steamer Halles for Halifax, the Anna also sailing the same day.

The Russian frigate General Admiral had arrived at Portsmouth from Crotstadt.

ZURICH CONFERENCE.

Nothing authentic as to the progress of the Conference. The sittings were quite irregular.

The plenipotentiaries of France and Sardinia were frequently in communication.

The following is the latest—

Zurich, 24th.

Yesterday the plenipotentiaries of France and Austria held a conference, which lasted two hours.

Despatches were received the same day from the Vienna plenipotentiaries, and from the Bishop of Zurich for their excellent reception.

No other report about them is to be found.

free trade would be fully discussed, and that the known views of the Emperor in his favor would be given due consideration.

The Paris Hospitals have been reduced under the will of Lord Henry Seymour, £30,

The Liberals in France are disappointed at the number of events who then decline admission to the membership of the Legion of Honour. It is contented, would be advantageous to the cause of liberty.

ITALY.—The object of a defensive league between the Provisional Government of Milan, and the ducal states of Mantua, Modena, and the duchy of Modena, is the formation of a centralization of Italian governments, to maintain internal order, and to lay down the basis of aristocratical institutions.

Artiglio had reviewed the army of Modena.

National Assembly of Modena, we promoted the following decree:—The dictation of Prince, giving him full power to contract a loan of £5,000,000, for the erection of a monument to commemorate the vote decreeing the forfeiture of France

V., and the secession of Piedmont, and the foreign powers for the restoration of the legal rights of the state.

FURTHER IN THE EUROPA.

Paris has issued a decree that all persons from 1st Sept., the national lists between

Paris and Modena shall be suppressed.

The King of Sardinia is returning thanks for a medal presented to him by a private Society, said that his efforts were always concerned with great national cause;

but that if ever it was his desire to do it, that through displays and his fortunes might arise, which he would certainly be surrounded, and that in view of the wisdom and good order now displayed in the Dukes and Consuls, it was impossible for him, as he may have wished, to pledge his best efforts for the welfare of Italy.

The ministry of Prince Poniatowski to Italy had attracted attention. It was supposed that Napoleon had sent him to carry on the intrigues set on by M. Rossi.

The Parisian journals deny that the Grand Duke Constantine was England with any political intent. He only went there as the Sultan had been taken ill.

Prince Vogodsky is dead.

The Vicerey of Egypt was increasing his army in Upper Egypt.

The India and China mail telegraphed by the North British, will reach Liverpool on the 27th, but was feared too late for the Europa.

COEUR CHINE.—A general massacre of Christians in the town of Borsia is reported. The pilgrims from Mecca are supposed to have given the signal for the outburst.

THE CHURCHES IN ENGLAND.—A letter from the Grand Lodge of Markmasons, in the English papers, states that the church has broken out with great violence in some towns and villages of that country, and that many of the persons attacked have been severely wounded or lost their lives.

WOLFE'S COFFIN.—The vaults beneath

Greenwich Chapel, in which Wolfe's remains are placed, have been opened by order of the Queen.

Pray, who is buried in the vaults beneath

Greenwich Chapel?

THE HASTINGS CHRONICLE.

WOLFE AND MONTCALM.

The Quebec Gazette states that the French Canadians are determined to make a military display in memory of their ancestors at the Battle of Montcalm. And it adds: "What the British residents of Quebec are going to do?" Have they no idea of paying a tribute to their dead? And when a tribe of Indians sprang up from the blood of Britain with its life-blood—the gallant Wolfe? As yet the Lower Canada British Journal have had no disposition to make a display of the memory of their unkindest reminiscences of the potency of British arms and British gallantry in the time of their founders, one hundred years ago. But John Bishop is no less than a hero. He has the British courage and integrity, he has the British endurance and morality, for he intends to demonstrate his respect for the memory of the French chief who fell in behalf of France, while he is the champion of the subsequent French and the French Canadian who have to renounce on "people's" Arianism. Although no reason under the sun exists for their hostility to British rule in Canada, enjoying as they do the benefits of that very position, can we deny that the system of government is so intimately identified with their old law and institutions, to which the French of Lower Canada are wedded with a tenacity that belies the enlightened age of our present times, that the English-speaking race will be compelled to yield the crown of freedom from the Protestant control among the Protestant population alarms their jealous priesthood less it may evenfully affect their own principles and emanations from the system of protection? In the assumption that he despised the Baham and priests of Lower Canada to draw closer the cord of unity, and to incite from the press and the pulpit principles at variance with social freedom, and intimacy with the English-speaking race, the most fatal of all his "titles" of the Roman Catholic Hierarchy in Ireland is somewhat analogous; there also it is attempted to increase the stringency of ecclesiastical domination over the masses, and to keep the entire race from the old spirit of hatred to England and her institutions, which have been the bane of Ireland's prosperity and happiness for time immemorial. What the ultimate upshot of this policy will be, it is difficult to determine, but certainly we are rapidly, and that is, to the chagrin of the Romish Hierarchy in Ireland and in Canada the Protestants will evict us "No Surrender."

With reference to the section of the Hierarchy in Ireland, our correspondent to the Quebec Times in this issue, which we recommend to the attention of the readers of the Newspaper and Irish Roman Catholics in particular.—Daily News.

DISCORD AMONG BROTHERS.

The Toronto Leader is by far the ablest and probably the most reliable Ministerial journal in Upper Canada. La Minerve is a weekly paper, and is the organ of the Liberal party, and consequently the most authentic exponent of Ministerial opinion in Lower Canada. These two journals have very recently been dealing in something akin to religious politics, and from premises the very opposite. The Leader has been in full sympathy with the British Church from the Broad Protestant point of view. On Monday, he exhibited unfavorably the manifesto against Mr. McGee. On Tuesday he led in a temperate but strong article with the concession, while according to his story, it is a man's right to be a Dissenter, and the name of tithe from the poor protestant of Lower Canada, and that he calls an "inquisition" which the legislature may fairly be invited to prohibit, and tells us that "it is hardly possible to conceive a greater absurdity than that of the removal of civil power by priests." This latter article was probably strong, though tame in tone. After reading it, one is inclined to ask, what new light is the Leader obtaining? Has he stolen the High Protestant horse, upon which he used to have a much to say in religious politics? His opponents, La Minerve, on the other hand, tell us that the Separatists at the schools of Canada are in full need of reform, and that the Separatists, the friends of state-pid sectarian schools, are far from having all they ought to have; and that the next Session of Parliament will be just the time to ask and obtain a full recognition and introduction of the Separatist principle.

TAKE YOUR TIME.

Some of our contemporaries of the opposition are wanting to know who is to lead and who are to be the leaders of the principles of the party. Fahan, in What Name, is to be troubling your wise heads about such things after a four year trial. Who will lead him in opposition?

—Another attack is to be made in the Canadian School System of Upper Canada, and that the Administration is willing to aid the sectarians. This is very probable, to say the least of it. The Leader's article indicates that the time has come when the Separatists will be in full sympathy with the party.

—Whisper—let better say nothing—will the Separatist Guards have a swing, and if they do, will they be in full appearance of energy. You see it isn't enough to say, you don't amount to anything yourself; so then—stares—unlike Charles Lamb who made up for coming late by going early, the Separatists will be in full appearance of energy. Sometimes now exists in this city than we have witnessed not only since the Civil War, but for years before it?

DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

The following proclamation, was issued in the Canada Gazette Extraordinary, on Tuesday last:

"Whereas it hath pleased Almighty God, in His Grace, Goodness, to vouchsafe unto Our Province of Canada, the blessing of His Protection; We therefore, according the Laws of the Province, do command that General Prin will command the expedition fitting out against the Moors.

—England—The English news is quite uncertain.

The strike in the building trade was apparently over.

—There was no material change in the London money market.

MARKETS—Commodities at 95 to 95½. On Saturday money was abundant at 21 per cent.

The London Corn-market was dull. Flour, rather dearer, wheat had declined slightly.

The produce market was inactive. Sugar was a trifle lower.

—The price of bullion in the Bank of England since the last return was £337,000.

The Manchester market was firm, and Liverpool still dearer.

Liverpool—The price of corn was steady.

—Bacon—10/- per cwt. Tea—Sugar—

New York, Sept. 19th.
The St. Lawrence Patriot, from Liverpool on the 3rd inst., says:—On this morning, at 10 o'clock P. M., the steamer Argus going in. At 7.15 P. M., the City of Manchester, a steamer, passed the 4th at 1 P. M. she passed the City of Baltimore, bound East.

—The Patriot correspondent of the London Times, writing on the evening of the 1st, says:—"Of the Zurich Conference I can say nothing but what I stated yesterday, except that my time has now come when I am well aware of its truthfulness when I published the contradiction. We can even detect in its words the quibble under which it is to be seen."

—The Patriot correspondent of the London Times, writing on the evening of the 1st, says:—"There is a very short time when Canada left Mrs. Cory, and that the public, it seems, think that the government has done wrong in this case."

—Mr. John Jones, who is one of the Harcourt Commissioners, and who visited Toronto last session to press the claim on the Government. If there is such a person, he is a son of a man, with whom the Patriot considers that this "very summarily disposed of" party is in full sympathy.

—We however venture to differ with their prejudices, with destruction, and destruction of the party, and the public upon which the Upper Canadians rely, to "laid down by the solicitude of their religious institutions." The Montreal Pilot considers that this "very summarily disposed of" party is in full sympathy with the Patriot.

THE HASTINGS CHRONICLE.

The Farm.

HINTS ON POOR FARMING.

1. Invest all your capital in land, and run it up for more.

2. Hire money to stock your farm.

3. Have no faith in your own business, and be always ready to sell out.

4. Get your cows, spayed hens, and pens, and cheap tools.

5. Feed foot hay and mouldy corn stock exclusively, in order to keep your stock tame. Very care and trouble hard on old, sturdy animals.

6. Use the oil of walnut freely when over your oxen need strength. It is cheaper than hay or meal, keeps the hair lively and pounds out.

7. Sow a few acres of ruts stock as the winter shoot; because of ruts, thin in the hams, and pot-bellied; but save and keep their blood thin with scanty herbage.

8. All who are in the manufacture of manures. It makes the fields look black and mournful about planting time, besides it is a great deal of work to haul it.

9. Don't waste time, fruit and leaves rotting around a place make it unhealthy.

Read to poor farming, though largely travelled, not well understood, these landmarks are thrown up for the com mon benefit.

CHEAP SALT FOR MANURE.

Mr. V. M. Smith, Superintendent of the Ogdensburg Salt Works, Syracuse, N. Y., announces, for the benefit of those farmers that have disposed to make use of salt as a fertilizer, that he has prepared a special "Sprinkler" for exactly five cents per bushel, or a part not exceeding eleven cents per bushel, shipped from the canal boats at their place. Mr. Smith says it will afford a great convenience to those engaged in the salt business, so far as it is a general source of revenue. Those who will to know salt on their wheat this fall, can now obtain it at very little cost. A barrel per acre, soon broadcast, is the usual quantity.

Cool Ashes as a Fertilizer.

An exchange gives the following experiment by an English farmer: He marked off three patches in a clover field, each containing one rod of ground. The first had no manure, and produced 38 lbs. of clover, or 12 lbs. per acre. The second had 10 lbs. of black four-earred sifted coal ashes that had not been exposed to the weather; this produced 20 lbs. of clover. On the third patch one quart of plaster was sown, and the crop from it was 45 lbs. In other words, the coal ashes were equal to 25% of the plaster, so far as its general source of revenue is concerned. Those who will to know salt on their wheat this fall, can now obtain it at very little cost. A barrel per acre, soon broadcast, is the usual quantity.

HOING POTATOES WHEN WET.

"A correspondent of the Prairie Farmer states that having noticed how potatoes were intersected with growth, and invaded with weeds, when they were hoed over when wet with rain or rain, tried the following experiment: He selected a patch in his potato field, hid it plowed only once, and then loosened the soil with the hoe when the vines were above ground, and introduced a few weeds, which were perfectly dry. He never touched them afterward till they were dug in October. These bright reds did not produce half a crop, and that of a very inferior quality. The ground, seed, and time of plowing, in both patches were the same.

CULTIVATING CORN TOO MUCH.

A correspondent of the Michigan Farmer thinks corn can be, and often is, cultivated two or three times. He says his neighbor tended his corn seven times, and it is now cut off in the middle, while his own that was only plowed three times, and hoed twice, is still green. He thinks corn gains nothing by being cultivated after harvest time, and says it should be planted early and well cured while it is young, and then when it gets strong it is best to leave alone. He recommends going over it only once, and at the time the corn is beginning to ripen, and selecting the ripest, firmest, and toughest ears, and break and preserve them on the cob in a dry place for seed.

MILKING IN SILENCE.

At a meeting of the Farmers' Club at Weston, Conn., one of the members observed that no talking should be tolerated in the milking room, while milking was going on. Another member said, if discharged a man because he would talk and interrupt the milking in his dairy, and that in three days after the increase in the yield of milk was equal in value to the amount he would have had to pay the man.

USEFULNESS OF BIRDS.

The Honest says:—Until a few years ago the park at Bristol was shaded by trees of luxuriant foliage, the branches of which bent over the alleys and screened the spectators from the sun. These trees were all cut down, while droppings occasionally annoy the spectators. For this reason, the birds were banished. In few weeks the leaves of the trees were in full bloom, and now the branches are nearly stripped of their verdure and loaded with blossoms. Such is the effect of interest with nature, and destroying the enjoyment she has placed against the upland insects of any one of her creatures.

and casting to the web in which he is entangled. But though it was in the first instance, it is much more now, and it is to be feared that Mr. Farny will withdraw his support from the Independent, unless he would have it been for the parties concerned had had the Independent removed. He is not without reason, however, in his opinion; much better would it have been for Mr. Farny that he had no such advocates to defend him, than if it is said he is a scoundrel. The members of the party he is attached to must be aware of this.

The Independent must be horribly bad indeed, when he could not recollect of any, however, that he had ever seen in it. The Independent would have it been for the parties concerned had had the Independent removed. He is not without reason, however, in his opinion; much better would it have been for Mr. Farny that he had no such advocates to defend him, than if it is said he is a scoundrel. The members of the party he is attached to must be aware of this.

There is a great deal said in the Montreal papers about bankrupt Upper Canada, and about the losses which Montreal sustains in consequence of the depression there.

If the dandy dry goods men and grocers of the city think all bankrupt up here, they take a quick look at themselves. The country is fairly overrun with Montrealers.

There were five of them in the village of the merchants last day but week, posterizing the merchants to the bone.

They penetrate into every nook and corner of this "bankrupt" country.

They are a swindling set of customers.

A western trader goes to town, and to him it is thought he himself is a customer.

He says he heard read the article which appeared in this paper before it was published, and the fact has been repeated almost over and over again, that Mr. Farny, with which his name was associated, evidently showed a party to its being pulled that was, and that now at the eleventh hour, by defending his conduct for thus being tough and unyielding, to the memory of the very last scoundrel, he is only making himself appear ridiculous to the world, and drawing upon himself the curse of Indians who by his richly deserved

it is a very lame excuse, a very weak apology, to my that because his opinion was not sought by me, I am compelled to interfere.

We wonder if such blind apologetics are

Mr. Farny!

A SOLE OF COMPLAINTS.—Mrs. Helen Carnegie of Crieff, was a thorough specimen of a tall old Scotch beauty. She died in Montreal, April 1818 at the age of 80, having survived her husband 20 years. She was a decided and very aristocratic in her feelings, but on social terms with many loungers of Monroe, or Altona, as it was then called. She presented a picture of address and refinement to different individuals in the scale of her consideration. She liked a party at quadrille, and sent out her cards every evening to the grand, and her directions were emphatic thus: "Never, you'll gang to Lady Carnegie's and make my company, and ask the honor of the place of your card, to rank with the rest of the Carnegie's, for this evening; and if they can't come to Miss Maudie, and ask the favor of our company; and if she comes, give to Andy Spark and bid her come."

GIRLS, BEWARE.—Girls, beware of transient young men. Never suffer the address of a stranger. Recollect that one good farmer's boy, or industrious lad, is worth a world over than all the dandies in the world. The alterations of Danly Jack; with a gold chain around his neck, a walking stick in his paw, a three penny cigar in his mouth, some honest sailor's coat on his back, and brainties, though fancy and bold, can make up a good honest farrer's home; a good mother's comfort, and the society of brothers and sisters; their affection, and while that of such a young man is lost in a wan of a homony, true.

SURVOR'S LOSS TO THE FARMER.—THOUSANDS OF TONS OF HAY BURNED.—We regret to learn that on Monday last a fire raged in a stable extent on the Plateau, near the Township of Chambly, opposite over their whole extent. For weeks past farmers have been busily engaged in moving and stacking hay on their plains, and it is estimated that at the time the fire occurred there were upwards of three hundred stacks of hay piled high, and the flames were so fierce as to damage many of them. All this has now elapsed, involving a serious loss to the agriculturists of that vicinity. It is said that the fire raged with such violence that several persons and horses were severely scorched, and one man, who had just lit a pipe to warm his longer, was totally destroyed in the flames. The fire originally was set by a man who was carrying them from one part of his premises to another for the purpose of building a fire to burn some stumps.—Chatham Plain.
